Speaker	Time	Presentation
Michael Gray President CPO	10:00 -10:15 am	Welcome
Kevin Pietzsch Sales Technologist, Sales Engineering, Western Digital	10:15 – 11:05 am	Scary Things That Can Happen to Your Data and How to be Prepared  Data can be one of an organization’s most valuable assets, and there is more of it today than ever before. Are you keeping up with technologies that help you protect it and maximize its value? In other words, are you letting it know that you love it?
Nancy Collier Business Continuity Consultant, Grange Technology Services	11:15 -12:05	Business Continuity Awareness and Exercises – Back to the Future  This presentation focuses on our various generational audiences we work with today, tips for keeping people engaged, enthused about BC planning and tips and tools I have learned over the years to keep the program fresh.
	12:05 – 1:00	Lunch
Michael Gray	1:00-1:30	Around the Room Business Meeting
Michael Hudak BlueBridge	1:35 – 2:40	Cyber Security Best Practices for Emerging Technologies  With the continuing emergence of new technologies such as IoT and Edge computing, it’s important for every employee – not just the IT department – to have a working knowledge of the best practices for emerging technologies. This talk is centered around taking a deep dive into cyber security for a non-technically inclined audience.
Jody Davis-Curlless Service Continuity Manager, RELX Group	2:45 – 3:45	Cyber Security IMT Tabletop  This exercise will focus on Incident Management response during a IT Cyber Security event. The tabletop will be a scenario-based exercise to help prepare how you will react when a critical incident occurs.
